

VINOBA GUNNOO

CEO & MANAGING PARTNER OF CLARK ROBBINS
& ASSOCIATES GROUP OF COMPANIES

"The destiny of our paradise island lies in the hands of the youth. More youngsters should go for entrepreneurship as there are so many new ideas to bring in.

The key to success for aspirant businessman is not to do different things but to do things differently."

Vinoba Gunnoo is a Fellow Chartered Certified Accountant (FCCA), registered with the Financial Reporting Council (FRC) as a Licensed Auditor and a member of The Mauritius Institute of Professional Accountants (MIPA) as a Public Practitioner with 29 years of experience.

Vinoba has started his career in 1987 with Coopers & Lybrand (now Price Waterhouse Coopers) and successively with Arthur Andersen and BDO up to November 2003 when he joined Nexia Baker & Arenson, a Member firm of NEXIA International, as Partner.

Vinoba has a wide experience in accounting, auditing, taxation (corporate, personal and value added tax), and other financial consulting assignments both in Africa and in Mauritius.

He is currently the CEO and Managing Partner of Clark Robbins & Associates Group of Companies.

If you had to define 2015:
It was hectic.

What are your resolutions for the coming year?

To empower and train more young entrepreneurs to boost the Mauritian economy as well as creating jobs and reduce rate of unemployment.